A Life of Music

A child Holocaust survivor, Cantor Louis Danto's singing has been amazing audiences since he was a soloist at the age of 6. Internationally recognized, Danto is known for his extraordinary emotional expressivity, and for his voice's rare beauty, purity, power and control. Danto's repertoire includes German, Italian, Russian, French, Hebrew and Yiddish in the "Bel-Canto" style of singing. This set of two DVDs is a compilation of Danto's live concerts filmed in the former Soviet Union, U.S., Canada and Israel.
