A short time ago, at a convention of a large national organization, a film was shown to the delegates who had come from all corners of the country. During one of the scenes, an unmistakable voice was heard in the background singing the inspiring prayer, "Grant Us Peace".

The clear, hauntingly beautiful tones were those of Cantor Harold Orbach, who has included the prayer in this his newest record, MUSIC OF THE HIGH HOLY DAYS.

Even though Cantor Orbach's person was not shown on the screen, the lyric tenor voice and the crystal clear tones caused one man to exclaim: "That's my Cantor!"

"No", insisted a gentleman seated in front, "You're mistaken, that's my Cantor!"

In truth, both men were right. Cantor Orbach had just been called to the pulpit of Temple Israel of Detroit, where he now serves. He had previously been in Tulsa, Oklahoma, for six years. That both men were desirous of claiming Cantor Orbach as their own is understandable.

This exceptional young Cantor --- just thirty one years old --- has been widely acclaimed over and over again. In Concert appearances throughout the United States and Canada, he has been lauded by critics for the purity and beauty of his voice, as well as for the excellence of his musical interpretations.

All of these exceptional qualities are much in evidence in MUSIC OF THE HIGH HOLY DAYS.

A graduate Cantor of the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion's School of Sacred Music, Cantor Orbach was the winner of the much-coveted Kathryn Long Scholarship to the Juilliard School of Music.

In MUSIC OF THE HIGH HOLY DAYS, Cantor Orbach is joined by the Temple Israel Choral Group.
